Welcome to the beautiful and historic Village of Goshen!

We are so happy you are here; whether you are visiting for the day or are a lifelong resident, Goshen has something for you to enjoy day in and day out.

Our historic district has a number of architectural marvels that will bring anyone back in time. Be sure to check out our Walking Tour information located next to the Harriman Fountain; you won't be disappointed!

Home of the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame and the Historic Track, Goshen is a national destination in the horse racing world. Racing days at the track are magical in the Village and provide a glimpse to our great history.

Goshen's downtown business district has a number of delicious restaurants and eateries to satisfy any craving. Breakfast, lunch, dinner and dessert can all be found at our great restaurants. We are proud that most merchants and businesses in the village are locally owned and offer a variety of retail and professional services.

No matter your age, there are recreational opportunities for all residents to participate in and enjoy. Goshen Joint Recreation's five parks all offer something different to our guests.

Ultimately, the beating heart of our community is the people who live here. "Goshenites", as we refer to ourselves, are welcoming, friendly and service oriented. There are numerous opportunities available to volunteer through service organizations and places of worship.

Goshen is a special place with limitless opportunity. We hope you love it here as much as we do.

The Village of Goshen: work here, play here, stay here.

Mayor Kyle Roddey

Welcome to the Town of Goshen

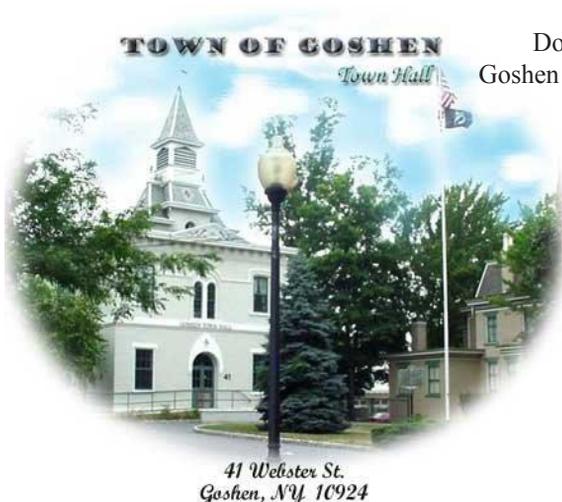

The Town of Goshen is steeped in history. It has pre-revolutionary homes from colonial times as well as a Town Hall built on the site of the Farmers' Hall Academy where Noah Webster taught prior to becoming famous as creator of the first American Dictionary. The Town also boasts a long history as a farming community. Horse farms, dairy farms, orchards and black dirt vegetable farms cover the landscape. What a beautiful and bountiful place to live!

Goshen is at the cross roads of many major highways and nearby Stewart International Airport. It is easy to go to and from our community. Many residents take advantage of Goshen's convenient location as they commute each day to jobs within New York City, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

Medical facilities with the latest technology are also available. Orange regional Medical Center in nearby Middletown is the newest hospital in New York State and is currently being expanded to include a state of the art cancer treatment center.

The Town of Goshen is home to or within close proximity to excellent public and private schools, a community college and a recently established medical school. In addition, there are programs for pre-school age children as well as a regional education center (Orange-Ulster BOCES) that offers services for students with special needs, vocational training and adult educational courses.

Our community is a great place to live, raise a family, work and/or commute to other points in the metro area. It is my hope to someday welcome you as a neighbor and new resident of the Town of Goshen.

Douglas Bloomfield
Goshen Town Supervisor

What's in a name?

Almost two centuries ago, the first of the settlers came. The native beauty of the place appealed to the calm and dauntless spirits of these men, who had plunged boldly into a benighted and unknown country. They stood upon the wooded hills and looked with glad eyes upon the fertile, fruitful valley. All around about them lay the land of their desire, and they called it Goshen, the “promised land” of the Scriptures.

The town, which was first known by this name in 1714, was originally much larger than at present. Its boundaries were defined by law in 1788. A part of Hamptonburgh was taken from it in 1830, and a part of Chester in 1845. Other changes of boundaries were made at different times.

THE VILLAGE OF GOSHEN, NEW YORK

Situated in the heart of Orange County, the Village of Goshen is located approximately 60 miles north of New York City. Goshen was originally part of what was known as the Wawayanda Patent, dating from 1703. The first settler was Christopher Denne, who arrived in 1712.

According to Samuel W. Eager's 1846–1847 An Outline History of Orange County,.....“The proprietors laid out the Village of Goshen by running a broad street or avenue, nearly north and south through the plot, some half a mile in length, and then by laying off four lots of eighty acres each, on the east and west sides of it. The village, most probably, was laid out within a few years after 1703 the date of the patent . . . 1714, for we have seen deeds for the lots in the village plot record, dated as early as the latter period.”

Within the village is the Church Park Historic District that encompasses not only the center of the village but also includes the residential area of large Victorian homes of South Church and South Streets. Being rich in architectural treasures, Goshen is fortunate to have unique homes throughout the village.

Goshen is well-known for its roots in harness racing. The village is home to the Harness Racing Museum and the Hall of Fame of the Trotter. Historic Track is the oldest active harness track in the United States, having seen racing since 1838. Historic Track is on the National Register of Historic Places. Another track, now gone, known as Good Time Park, was a mile-long racetrack and home of the Hambletonian harness race. The Hambletonian harness race was run every summer in Goshen from 1950 to 1956, before moving to Illinois, it is now run at the Meadowlands in New Jersey.

As the county seat, one of the main sources of employment today, as it always has been, is the county government. An area along Main Street, within the historic district, where many lawyers have their offices is known as Lawyers' Row. The area contains fine examples of 19th century townhouse architecture.

Some relatively famous names from Goshen's past include Gen. James W. Wilkin, speaker of the New York State Assembly; Dr. Benjamin Tustin, one of the first doctors to experiment with the use of vaccines; and Horace Pippin, the African American painter, who lived and painted in the village. Anna Dickerson, an anti-slavery activist, and jazz musician Willie “the Lion” Smith also called Goshen home.

HARRIMAN MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN

The Harriman Memorial Fountain on Park Square was designed by Frances Burrall Hoffman and was built by Charles Cary Rumsey, husband of Mary Harriman. In later years, the 1940s through the 1960s, when the fountain was no longer working, flowers were planted every summer and maintained by former police chief Stanley Golemboski. The fountain was restored, and its immediate area redesigned with additional plantings and benches in 1999.

The dedication of the Harriman Memorial Fountain took place on February 25, 1911, two years after the death of Edward Henry Harriman. In 1964, Park Square was renamed Harriman Square by Mayor Henry Hopkins during the 250th anniversary celebration of the settlement of the Goshen area.

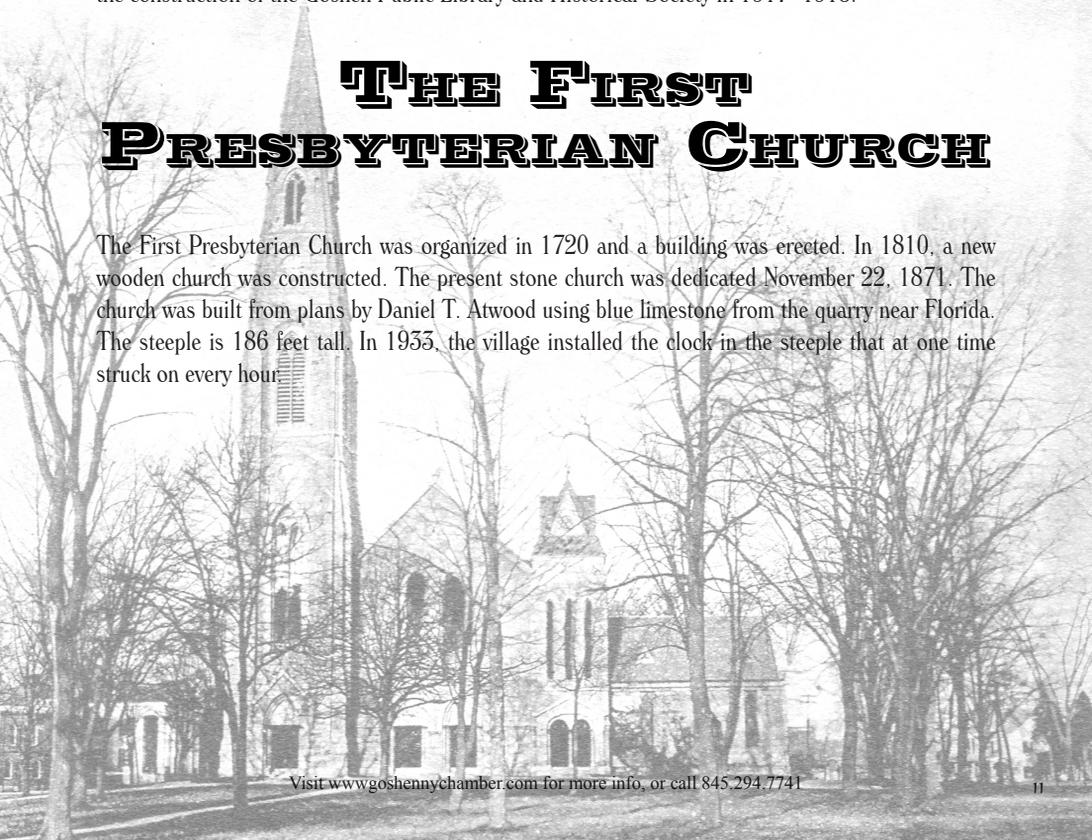

EVERETT MEMORIAL

The Everett Memorial in the park honors all soldiers and sailors of the Civil War. Erected in 1917 at the corner of the park, it replaced the wooden bandstand, fountain, and pond that were there previously. Charles T. Everett was a long time civic leader and local banker who also left money for the construction of the Goshen Public Library and Historical Society in 1917–1918.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The First Presbyterian Church was organized in 1720 and a building was erected. In 1810, a wooden church was constructed. The present stone church was dedicated November 22, 1871. The church was built from plans by Daniel T. Atwood using blue limestone from the quarry near Florida. The steeple is 186 feet tall. In 1933, the village installed the clock in the steeple that at one time struck on every hour.

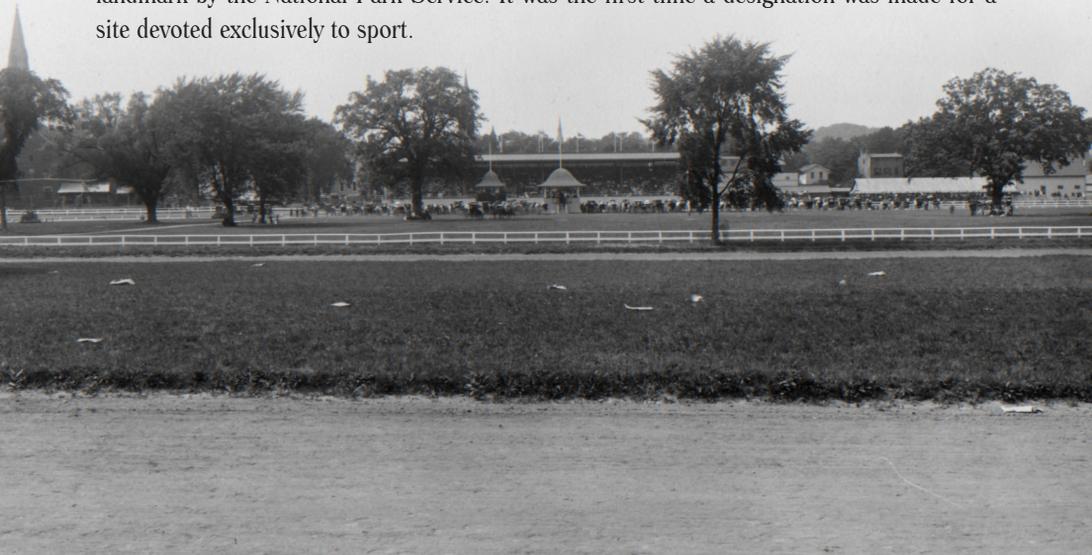

VETERANS' MEMORIAL

The Veterans' Memorial honors the fallen veterans of the First and Second World Wars as well as the Korean, Vietnam, and Gulf Wars.

HISTORIC TRACK

Historic Track is believed to be the oldest active half-mile harness track in the United States, hosting races since the early 1830s. Historic Track was designated in 1966 as a historic landmark by the National Park Service. It was the first time a designation was made for a site devoted exclusively to sport.

GOSHEN TOWN HALL

The Farmers Hall Academy, currently the site of the town hall, was erected about 1775. Noah Webster taught here for a short time in 1782 and wrote his spelling book during his stay.

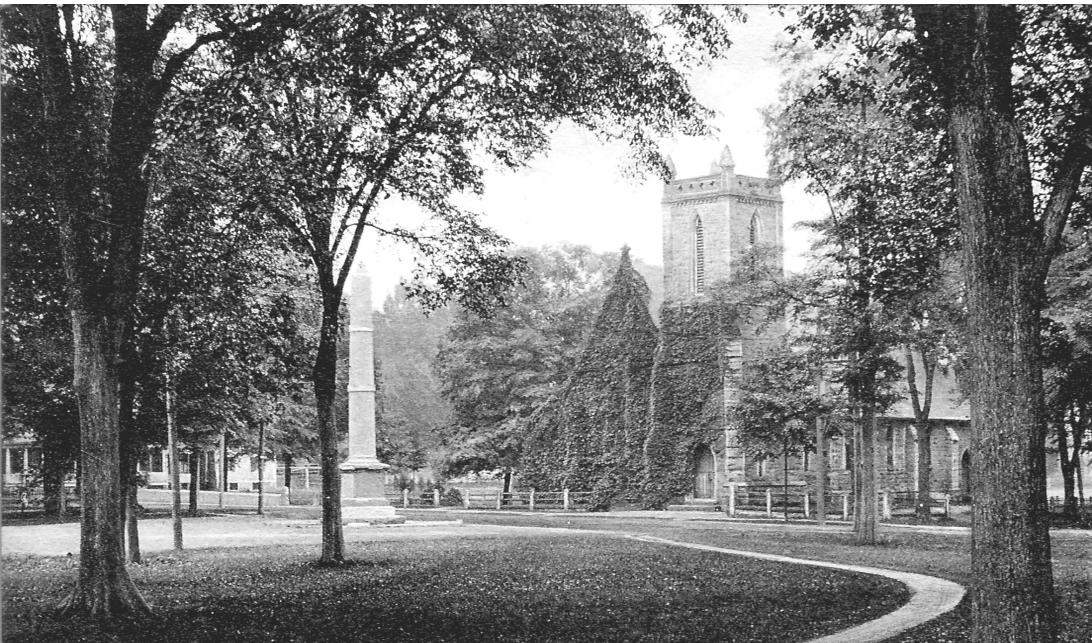

In 1822, the Farmers Hall Academy was organized as a common school within the village. The school district purchased the building in 1843. In 1876, an addition and bell tower were added. By 1885, two more rooms were constructed to the rear. In 1911, the Farmers Hall Academy was sold to the Town of Goshen. It has served as the town hall ever since. On December 12, 1992, a serious fire almost destroyed the building, but it was rebuilt and still serves the community as the town hall.

HARNES RACING MUSEUM

J. Howard Ford was an owner of a standard bred horse farm outside of Goshen. He built the stables for his horses in 1912. After Ford's death, the building remained empty until the 1920s, when William Cane bought the building and named it the Good Time Stable. In 1951, it became the Hall of Fame of the Trotter and is now known as the Harness Racing Museum.

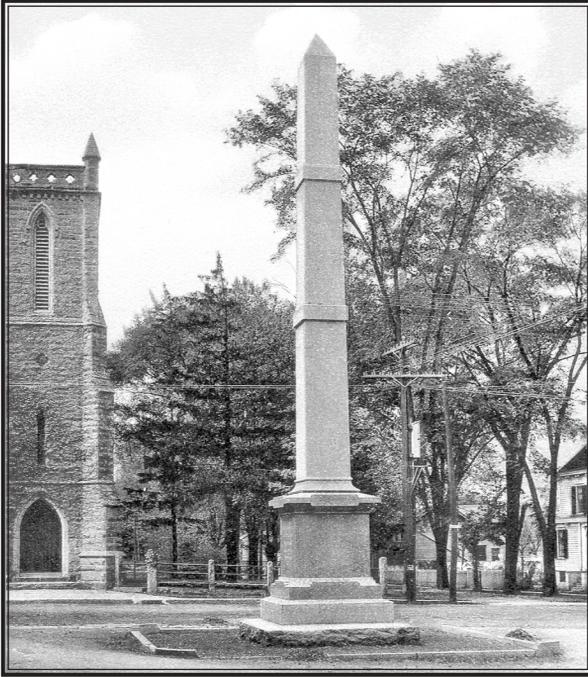

ST. JAMES' EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Saint James' Episcopal Church was incorporated on June 25, 1803. The first white frame building on the present site was completed in 1804. The land for the church, as well as the land for the church cemetery on South Street, was donated by Dr. John Gale. In 1851, the vestry resolved to build a new church to represent the architectural tastes of the day. The present stone church was completed in 1853.

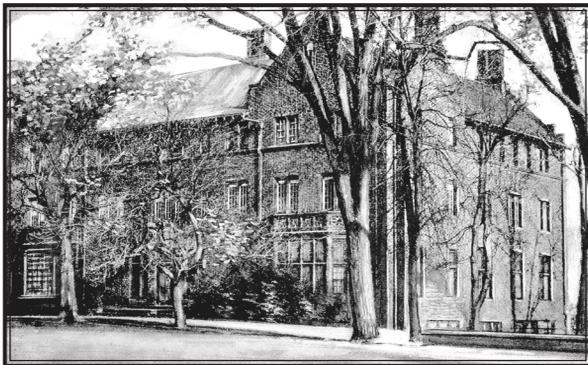

The chapel at St. James' Church was built in 1869 for winter and weekday services. In 1890 it was deconsecrated as a chapel. For many years, it served as the parish hall until a new addition was added in 1961. On December 27, 2002, a fire broke out in the 1869 chapel. The Goshen Fire Department responded and saved the rest of the church. The chapel has been restored and once again serves as a chapel as in 1869.

WISNER MEMORIAL

The Wisner Memorial, located on South Church Street and Park Place, is made of native Pochuck granite and was erected to the memory of Henry Wisner, member of the First and Second Continental Congress, by his great-granddaughter Frances Wisner Murray. The monument was dedicated on July 22, 1897.

GOSHEN INN

The Goshen Inn was built in 1912 by the Harriman family and others as a club house for the Orange County Hunt Club. A fire in 1929 caused the building to remain vacant until 1941 when Carl and Walter Neithold purchased the property and restored the building. Today the building contains a successful restaurant.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS MONUMENT

On Thursday, September 5, 1907, at the intersection of Main Street and Park Place, a monument was dedicated to the veterans of the Civil War 124th Regiment, known as the Orange Blossoms. The monument, which weighs 19 tons, has a bronze figure, The Standard Bearer was designed by Theo. Alice Ruggles Kitson. The figure is 18 feet in height and stands upon a pedestal of granite, which is 14 feet high. The monument was presented to the people of Orange County by Hon. Thomas W. Bradley of Walden, who was a member of Congress.

VILLAGE HALL "MAPLEWOOD"

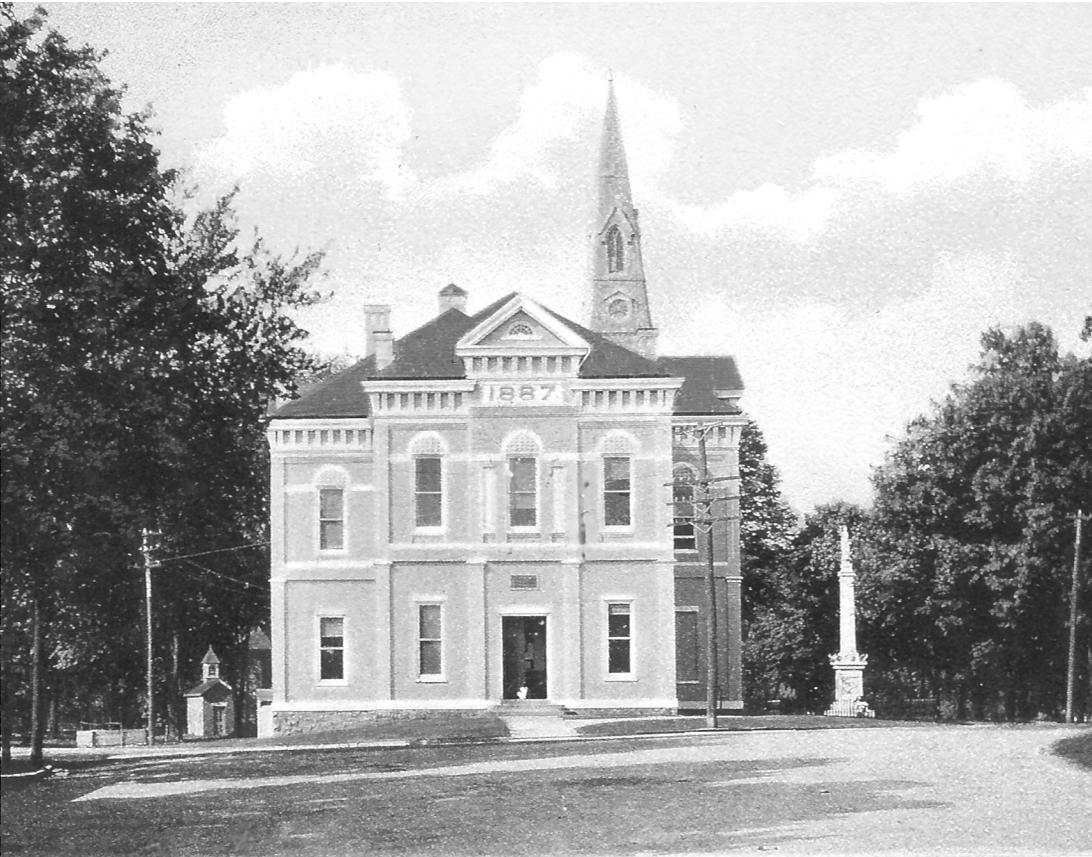

This is an early photograph of Maplewood, the current village hall. Ambrose S. Murray was a clerk, cashier, and president of the Bank of Orange County from 1854 until his death in 1885. The bank started in this building along Main Street. It later moved to the bank building on West Main Street in 1852. Murray was elected to the 34th and 35th United States Congress. He was married to Frances Wisner, the daughter of Henry G. Wisner, in 1836.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The first Methodist Episcopal Church was dedicated August 30, 1848 and was located on the corner of Canal and North Church Street. The current United Methodist Church was dedicated in 1884. The church site on Main Street was the location of the historic Gale-Wescott house.

1887 ORANGE COUNTY BUILDING

The county building was first built in 1851, and then enlarged in 1887, and again in 1937 when a third floor was added. It held most county offices with the exception of the courts and jail, which were located across the street.

MINISINK MEMORIAL MONUMENT

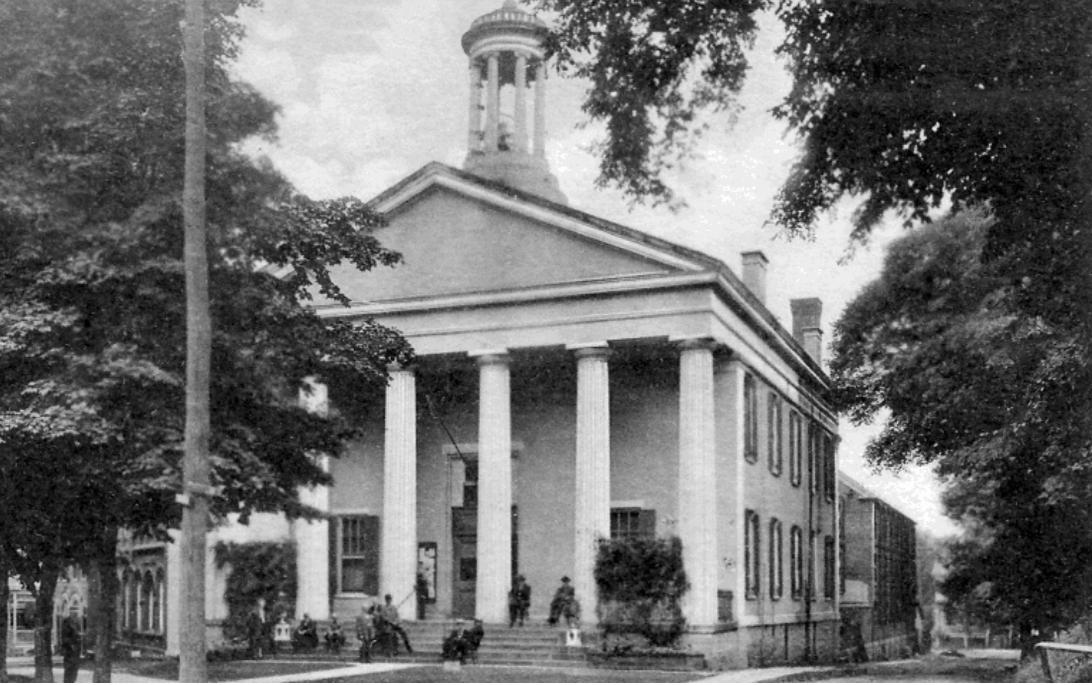

The Minisink Memorial Monument is a memorial to those who died at the Battle of Minisink in 1779. This second monument was installed in 1862.

PUBLIC LIBRARY & HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The first library was in the Farmer's Hall Academy on the site of the present town hall. In 1831, a library association was organized, but quickly died out. The Goshen Library and Historical Society was incorporated July 6, 1894. It became a public library in 1911. Charles Everett donated the money for a new building in 1918, at a cost of $35,000. The small addition on the back was added in 1976. The library's official name was changed in 1984 to the Goshen Public Library and Historical Society in recognition of its service to the general public.

ORANGE COUNTY 1841 COURT HOUSE

Designed by Thornton Macness Niven (1806–1875), this view shows the Orange County 1841 Court House on Main Street and Court Lane with the county jail in the rear. The jail was torn down in the 1960s when a new jail was built on Erie Street behind the current Orange County Government Center. The building to the left in the photograph was the Surrogate's Court building of Orange County. The interior of the courthouse was remodeled in 1895 and included the addition of tin walls and ceilings.

MUSIC HALL

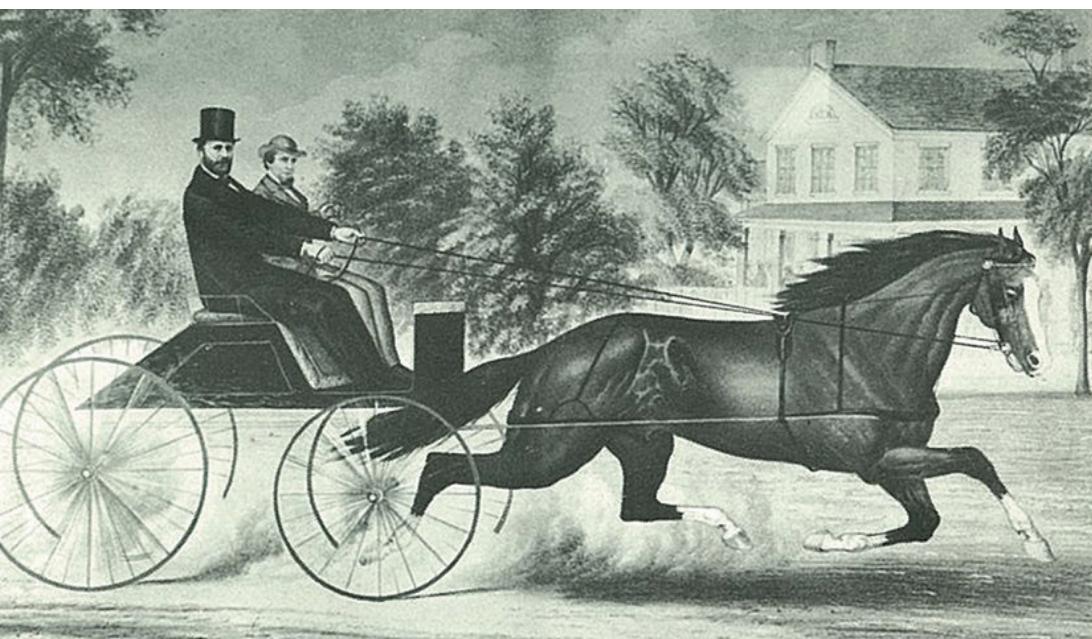

The popularity of the Goshen Vocal Society brought about the construction of this Greek revival Music Hall in 1889 to serve as an auditorium for musical and dramatic presentations.

Goshen Historic Track

44 Park Place
Goshen, NY 10924
845-294-5333

National Historic Landmark that is always the center of activity, Goshen Historic Track honors the past while providing a new generation of standardbred horses, their owners and their trainers with a beautiful setting in which to train and race. Nestled in the charming Village of Goshen, New York, the world's oldest harness track is surrounded by Victorian homes, nineteenth century commercial buildings, row houses and Gothic Revival churches.

Cheer for your favorite horse during the summer racing season, or visit any time of year to watch racehorses in training. You can take a self-guided tour of the Track's many landmarks and view the horses in their stables. Legendary horses like Hambletonian, Speedy Rodney and Greyhound are part of the Track's exciting past. More recently, world champion Deweycheatumnhowe, winner of The Hambletonian, (the trotting world's equivalent to the Kentucky Derby), boarded, trained and raced at Goshen Historic Track.

The 1/2 mile track on which legends were made was built in 1838 to provide local horse owners with a place to race their horses without endangering townspeople with runaways or careening carriages. President Ulysses S. Grant, an accomplished equestrian and racehorse fancier, attended races at the track in 1873. In 1911, when the Track was added to the Grand Circuit, Mrs. Mary Harriman donated the funds for the construction of the grandstand which still stands today. Goshen Historic Track, in 1940, was the first American track to implement pari-mutual wagering.

The Great American Weekend, Goshen's annual Fourth of July tradition, coincides with the Grand Circuit Racing Season. Four days of racing showcase many horses and drivers that go on to the national circuits. There is always something to do for the entire family. In the weeks before, there are also three Sundays of Matinee Races, where young trotters and pacers compete and test their drivers in races that are every bit as exciting as the Grand Circuit Races.

Every year, Goshen Historic Track hosts many club, community and organization fundraising events. More than a training center for world-class standardbreds, the Track presents car shows, concerts, walk-a-thons and graduations. The Track's first "Kentucky Derby Day" last May promised to become an annual tradition featuring live music, good food, contests and Kentucky Derby style fun. Audiences can also look forward to concerts highlighting different musical genres, from Country to Big Band, performed by accomplished local and nationally known artists.

Visit Goshen Historic Track's website at www.goshenhistorictrack.com to check for the latest events. Call 845-294-5333 to inquire about having YOUR organization's event hosted by Goshen Historic Track.

Helping Hands Christian Pre-School is celebrating our 15th School Year!

Admission is open to children of all religions, races, national and ethnic origins. Our school is Christian oriented, but not denominationally oriented. We promote the elements of faith that are common to Christian people.

Our program is designed to meet the developmental needs of children ages 2-5 years. We provide a nurturing environment where children are encouraged to ask questions, explore, experiment, and make discoveries for themselves through their play experiences, both teacher-directed and self-directed. We will help prepare children for Kindergarten both socially and academically; and equally important, we will provide a spiritual foundation to prepare them for life.

We are a school that puts our faith into action by doing several mission projects each year to benefit both local and global communities. Some of our projects have included, but are not limited to, the Goshen Ecumenical Food Pantry, Goshen Humane Society, Hailey's Hope, Safe Homes of Orange County, Family Promise of the Hudson Valley, Heifer International, Samaritan's Purse and individual families in the area.

We continue to accept registration for the current school year. Please call the office at 615-1353 to arrange for a tour of the school.

Orange-Ulster BOCES

Orange-Ulster Board of Cooperative Educational Services is one of thirty-seven BOCES in New York State which provide shared educational services and programs to school districts throughout the state. BOCES help school districts save money by pooling resources and sharing costs which then allows schools to operate more efficiently and cost-effectively. Cooperative services are created when two or more school districts have similar needs that can be met by sharing staff, office space, equipment and time. BOCES also writes, receives and administers grants which help fund programs for students and staff in local school districts.

Orange-Ulster BOCES Career and Technical Education (CTE) offers cutting-edge technical programs to local high school students in the region. All CTE programs have a performance-based academic component so students can successfully meet high school graduation requirements. Not only does a CTE education provide exemplary technical and academic training, but the “whole student” is nurtured with emphasis on character education, development of a strong work ethic and an appreciation for the learning opportunities beyond the classroom.

The OU BOCES Division of Adult Education provides timely and cost-effective training in a number of fields including health care, computer literacy and trade programs certified by the National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER). Adult students looking to upgrade skills in their present job, or explore new occupational fields, can avail themselves of 75 courses in fifteen areas of study designed to support a skilled workforce and sustain companies doing business in the Mid Hudson region and beyond. The BOCES Practical Nurse Program is enhanced by its state-of-the-art facility at the Regional Education Center at Arden Hill which provides students with a real-world hospital setting including refurbished labs and contemporary technology-rich classrooms that facilitate innovative learning.

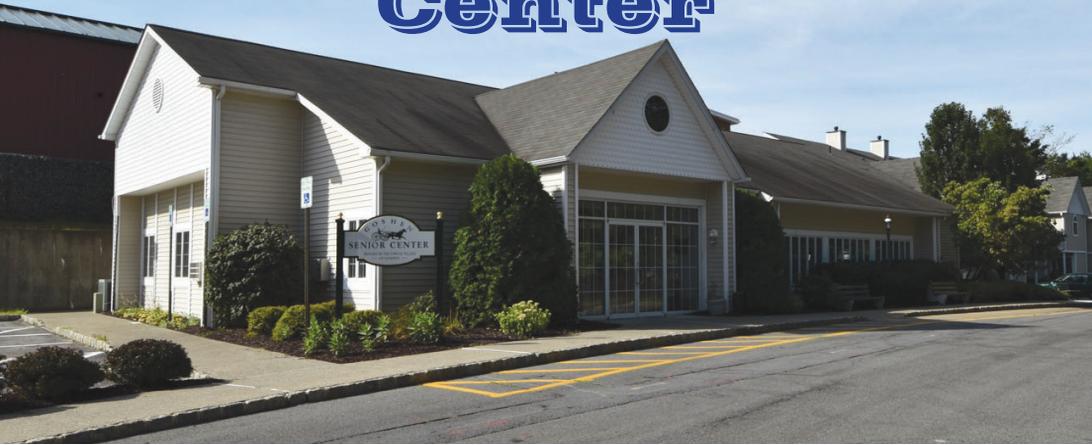

BOCES' Division of Instructional Support Services is highly respected in the region for supporting teachers, administrators and school librarians in their mission to prepare all students to successfully meet the New York State Learning Standards. The distance-learning Mandarin Chinese Language program is an example of how instructional technology collaboration opens doors and increases opportunities for students. BOCES' Technology Division which provides leadership for school districts in planning, implementing, upgrading and maintaining technology in component schools. A state-of-the-art secure data center, strategically located at the Regional Education Center at Arden Hill, was designed to meet the growing data security and technology access needs as well as records management requirements for school districts.

Orange-Ulster BOCES has long been a valued provider of Special Education and Alternative Education for local children requiring these services. The Emanuel Axelrod Education Center, located on the BOCES main campus in Goshen, houses five special education programs for students ranging from kindergarten to high school-aged students with developmental and/or emotional disabilities or autistic spectrum disorders. Students also attend classes in several satellite programs located in school districts throughout Orange County. In 2012, a highly-specialized therapeutic program at the Regional Education Center at Arden Hill was opened for students who were previously bussed to specialized programs outside of Orange County at considerable expense to their districts. By bringing these students closer to home, not only did districts realize major transportation savings, but the quality of life for those students was greatly enhanced.

The Orange-Ulster BOCES Regional Education Center at Arden Hill continues to expand offerings for students of all ages through programs in Adult Education Health Careers and Practical Nurse programs, Career & Technical Education in the Health Careers Academy, Special Education, Instructional Support Services, Library Services, Management Services and Technology. In the fall of 2014, BOCES entered into a cooperative agreement with Orange County Office for the Aging, and as a result of this collaboration between Orange-Ulster BOCES and Orange County, the Office for the Aging has access to the expansive kitchen and equipment for preparing meals for Orange County's Home Delivered Meal Program.

Educational opportunities for students are greatly enhanced through the many cooperative services offered by BOCES. Through BOCES, districts provide a rich variety of learning experiences for students of all interests and ability levels. BOCES opens doors to innovative and exciting programs that are affordable for local school districts as well as members of the community.

Goshen Art League

The Goshen Art League fosters public awareness of the artists in our community. It provides members with opportunities to exhibit their artwork, give workshops, and create work on group paint outs. The initial concept to form an art group was in 1953, and the Goshen Art League was officially formed in February of 1961. It continues today with a variety of exciting activities. The league has been exhibiting art at numerous venues, including the Goshen Town Hall, The Berkshire Bank, Painter's Restaurant in Cornwall, Brotherhood Winery, Noble Coffee Roasters, Middletown Park Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center, and more. League members give monthly art workshops for the residents at Middletown Park Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center. On the residence's New Horizons Alzheimer's and dementia floor, member Julissie Saltzberg has painted murals that have transformed the elevator and emergency exit doors into beautiful, detailed works of art. The group enjoys paint outs at scenic locales, such as at the Orange County Arboretum.

In addition, the Goshen Art League has been organizing the Goshen Art Walk along with a joint committee that also includes the Village of Goshen, Goshen Chamber of Commerce, and Orange County Arts Council. In March of 2015, the Village of Goshen Mayor Kyle Roddey first approached the league about developing this event. The Goshen Art Walk is held first Fridays of the month from 6-9pm. Different artists show their paintings, sculptures, pottery, video art, and more at various venues in downtown Goshen. Musicians are also situated playing music along the art walk.

More information about the Goshen Art League can be found on the website: goshenartleague.weebly.com. The Goshen Art League welcomes artists and art supporters to join as members. You may contact the Goshen Art League by e-mailing goshenartleague@gmail.com. If you are interested in becoming involved with the Goshen Art Walk as a venue, exhibiting artist, or volunteer, please contact GoshenArtWalk@yahoo.com. You may also find the Goshen Art League and Goshen Art Walk on Facebook.

THEATRE ARTS
Ken Tschan, Artistic Director

2016 Season

Hello from Cornerstone Theatre Arts!

Show times are Fridays/Saturdays at 7PM Sundays at 2PM

Reservations Required (845) 294-4188

Reservations being accepted starting February 1, 2016 for “Where in the Hell...”

“Where in the Hell is Heaven on this Earth?” Our intimate theatre is the perfect venue for this powerful combination of human struggle and achievement through characters and words that will leave their mark on your very soul. An important glimpse into the journey of others---and our own. Conceived and directed by Brian Joseph Boothe. February 20, 21, 27, 28, March 5 & 6.

“Inventing Van Gogh” is the story of the final Van Gogh self-portrait, painted just before the artist’s death, which has never been seen...until now. Patrick Stone, a contemporary painter, is hired to forge this final masterpiece—and finds himself squaring off, across the years, with Van Gogh himself. Written by Steven Dietz. Directed by Ken Tschan. April 16, 17, 22, 23, 24, 29, 30 May 1st.

“An Evening of Brian C. Petti One-Acts” Award winning Hudson Valley playwright Brian C. Petti once again commands our stage with his brilliant work. His “Echoes of Ireland” still has our audiences in awe. Now, he brings new characters to life with the vigor and sheer humanity we’ve come to appreciate so much of this gifted artist. June 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19.

Shakespeare in Salesian Park: “Love’s Labour’s Lost [KT1].” Four young men—the King of Navarre and three friends—promise to forswear the company of women for three years in order to pursue learning. And this is a comedy!?! (Yup.) Come on out with a lawn chair & a picnic basket—you’ll love it!

Directed by Ken Tschan. July 16, 17, 23, 24. Rain or Shine under the Big Tent.

“Talley’s Folly” by Lanford Wilson won the 1980 Pulitzer Prize. Mr. Wilson is one of our most gifted playwrights, a dramatist who deals perceptively with definably American themes...he introduces us to two wonderful people, humanizing and warming them with the radiance of his abundant talent. Directed by Bruce Gluckman. September 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 30 October 1 & 2.

“The Foreigner” by Larry Shue is winner of the Outer Critics Circle Award. It is a blatantly charming and somewhat whacky comedy filled with those very real moments that bring us to the theatre in the first place. Amazing characters!

Directed by Crystal Von Oesen. November 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20.

There it is...our 2016 Season. Plus, we’ll be throwing in a few treats every now and again as the year goes on. Thanks!

Ken Tschan, Artistic Director

Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame

Established in 1951 the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame is dedicated to the preservation and celebration of the American-born sport of harness racing and the Standardbred horse, both with deep roots in New York State. First opened in a 1913 Tudor-style horse stable, the Museum has grown into a 38,000 square foot fully handicapped accessible venue hosting 17,000 visitors annually and caring for a complex collection of more than 70,000 items, including glass and film negatives, photographs, textiles, fine art, sculpture, horse drawn vehicles, and a library of books, film, and periodicals. The 3-D harness racing simulator puts the visitor in the midst of an exciting race and is a fan favorite. Serving as the Hall of Fame for the sport, the Museum honors each inductee with a unique portrait sculpture and highlights each Hall of Famer's illustrious career with informational interactive displays. The Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame is one of our region's best kept secrets and we are working hard to change that.

DISCOVER FARM TO TABLE

From Goshen's Black Dirt to Table

Through an odd twist of geological fate, some of North America's most fertile soil lies an hour's drive from Manhattan pavement, in the 22 square miles of Orange County, N.Y., known as the "Black Dirt" region.

So what do farmers grow in this miracle earth? For about a century, the area has been known for onions, producing some of the spiciest alliums available, thanks to the soil's high sulfur content, which boosts pyruvic acid, that irritating and delicious compound that makes the eyes well up at the cutting board.
